- We give thanks to God for the safe return of our church members who have travelled recently.
- We thank the Lord for our ushers, who warmly welcome everyone who comes through our doors to worship on Sundays.
- We are grateful for all our faithful volunteers and leaders who generously give their time and gifts to serve the Lord and His church.
- We praise God for His faithfulness in continually opening doors for our church building to be rented throughout the year. All glory and praise belong to Him!
- We thank God for the faithful and generous giving of everyone who supports the ongoing ministry and mission of LPBC.
- We give thanks for the worship team preparing to lead us in worship this coming Sunday. May the Lord bless and guide them as they serve Him. 🙏

Healing

- Richard (Mary RG's Friend) – Let us continue to pray for Richard as he faces a serious medical condition. May God grant him comfort, peace, and healing according to His will. Pray also for Mary as she supports her friend, and especially that Richard's heart will be open to the Gospel and the gift of salvation through Jesus Christ.
- Conductive Education Academy (CE Academy) – Pray that the students will continue to grow, learn, and flourish in their program at our church. May God strengthen their families, guide the dedicated staff, and help our church building remain a welcoming and supportive environment for everyone.
- Sunil (Friend of Natalie's Sister in Trinidad) – Continue to lift Sunil up as he undergoes treatment for Stage 3 cancer. Pray for strength, effective treatment, and wisdom for his medical team. May God comfort Sunil and his loved ones and fill them with peace, courage, and hope.

Pray that God will strengthen and comfort them and remind them they are loved and valued. May He guide us to offer meaningful fellowship through visits, phone calls, prayer, and acts of kindness.
